

STUDY TOUR

25-27 November 2026 | Warsaw & Grodzisk Mazowiecki

TRAVEL GUIDANCE

This guide helps InnOFoodLabs Study Tour participants plan their stay and move smoothly between the venues in Warsaw. It follows the current draft agenda and the format of the Green Basket travel guidance.

Suggested arrival: 24 November 2026, especially for international participants.
The programme starts at 13:00 on 25 November in central Warsaw.

Recommended accommodation

Participants may arrange their own accommodation. We suggest two options, depending on whether they prefer maximum convenience for SGGW or a central-city location.

OPTION 1 - IKAR Guest Rooms | SGGW campus

Nowoursynowska 161, 02-787 Warsaw

24-hour reception, Wi-Fi, private bathroom, kitchenette and free parking.

A group reservation has been made at IKAR for 25-27 November 2026. The special SGGW rate is PLN 151.20 per person/night for a single room, including breakfast. The final list of participants staying at IKAR should be provided after 20 October 2026.

Public transport from SGGW:

- Ursynów Płn. bus stop (al. Rodowicza „Anody”) - buses 185 and 503 towards the city centre and Old Town.
- SGGW Biblioteka bus stop (Nowoursynowska Street) - bus 148 provides a direct connection with Warsaw Chopin Airport.
- Metro Ursynów (M1) - approximately 600 m on foot from the SGGW campus via Béla Bartóka Street.

Recommendation: IKAR is a very sensible default group option: inexpensive, breakfast included and directly on the SGGW campus. Mercure Warszawa Grand is worth offering as an optional alternative for guests who strongly prefer a central 4-star hotel.

OPTION 2 - Mercure Warszawa Grand | City centre

Krucza 28, 00-522 Warsaw

4-star hotel in central Warsaw at Krucza 28, close to the Royal Route, restaurants and city-centre attractions. Warszawa Centralna railway station is about 1 km away.

Easy access to the Day 1 venues and the cultural evening. Travel to SGGW takes much longer than from IKAR, which is located at SGGW. The price is also much higher than at IKAR – 683 PLN /night with breakfast.

Street

From Warsaw Chopin Airport (WAW)

- To IKAR / SGGW: bus 148 serves the SGGW Biblioteka stop, providing a direct public-transport connection to the campus.
- To Mercure Warszawa Grand: the hotel is at Krucza 28 in central Warsaw, about 1 km from Warszawa Centralna railway station; rail, bus, taxi and app-based transport are practical options.
- Allow extra time during weekday peak hours. Late November can be cold and wet, so a taxi/Uber may be more comfortable with luggage.

From Warszawa Centralna railway station

- Mercure Warszawa Grand is located at Krucza 28 in central Warsaw, about 1 km from Warszawa Centralna railway station.
- For IKAR, travel toward Ursynów/SGGW. Metro Ursynów (M1) is approximately 600 m on foot from the SGGW campus via Béla Bartóka Street. From the Ursynów Płn. stop on al. Rodowicza „Anody”, buses 185 and 503 run towards the city centre and Old Town.

Public transport: Warsaw has an integrated bus, tram and metro network. From SGGW, buses 185 and 503 from the Ursynów Płn. Stop (al. Rodowicza „Anody”) provides connections towards the city centre and Old Town. Bus 148 from the SGGW Biblioteka stop (Nowoursynowska Street) provides a direct connection with Warsaw Chopin Airport. Metro Ursynów (M1) is approximately 600 m on foot from the campus via Béla Bartóka Street. Paper tickets should be validated immediately after boarding.
